SUBJECT: Letter of Appreciation

1. Please accept my appreciation for your outstanding contribution to and support of the Chemical/Biological Warfare (CBW) Intelligence Subcommittee of the DCI's Critical Intelligence Problems Committee from September 1984 to April 1985.

2. As you well know the subcommittee dealt with one of the most difficult and perplexing challenges confronting the Intelligence Community. It was because of your dedication and perseverance that the subcommittee was able to complete its assigned task in a timely fashion. Your sense of mission and teamwork as well as your professionalism were evident throughout the deliberations. Your superb participation reflects great credit upon yourself and your organization.

3. The insights gleaned and camaraderie established during those six months will continue to pay dividends for the Intelligence Community long after the demise of our subcommittee. Moreover, the findings and the recommendations of the subcommittee will markedly enhance our intelligence posture on CBW matters. In a number of areas the subcommittee's efforts already are having a significant impact within the Intelligence Community.

4. On a more personal note, it was truly an honor as well as a pleasure to have worked with you on this demanding but critical intelligence problem. Thanks again for a job well done!
